

In Times Like These

Although we have never met, we share your sorrow, for we also have lost loved ones whom we hold dear.

In our times of grief we have found the Biblical promise of a resurrection most assuring and faith- strengthening. The Scriptures assure us that all who have ever died shall be raised to life again to have a complete opportunity to know God in his Kingdom soon to be established in all the earth.

In the Kingdom God has promised that he "shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away." Revelation 21:4

You'll see them in the morning,

When the mist is on the hill;

The ransomed hosts returning,

For 'tis God's unchanging will

That those dear familiar faces

Will refill the empty spaces, and praise

Will grace the voices that were still.

That we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. - Romans 15:4

Jesus Wept . . .

Like Jesus, we also shed tears of sorrow at the loss of loved ones. A tender tie is broken, leaving our hearts heavy and sad. Why does our loving, all powerful Creator permit this heartache to befall all mankind? What lies beyond death?

We would like to share with you some of the promises of God's Word which have helped us in similar experiences. We do not desire to intrude upon your sorrow, but would be pleased to send you a gift booklet, upon request. Many have found comfort and peace in its pages.

May you in your hour of deepest sorrow,

Grasp hold of the promises of God's tomorrow!
