

Higher Critics

Build yourself up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit. Keep yourselves in God's love. Jude 20,21.

Circle (a) (b) or (c) to indicate the correct answer.

1. Christians should pray so that they:

- (a) keep themselves in the love of God.
- (b) become more knowledgeable.
- (c) do not need so much of God's mercy.

2. The fact that many Christians today do not suffer physical persecution means that they:

- (a) need to be on guard against becoming proud.
- (b) do not need so much faith.
- (c) understand Daniel's prophecies.

3. One of the benefits of studying the Bible is that we:

- (a) learn how to delay the time of trouble.
- (b) learn more of God's plan.
- (c) do not need to rely so much on the prophets.

4. The "higher critics" are very intelligent people who:

- (a) do not need to suffer persecution.
- (b) do not believe all the Bible.
- (c) build up a sound faith on their own.

5. The Bible says that "scoffers" are those people who:

- (a) do not believe the higher critics.
- (b) do not believe the prophecies of the Bible.
- (c) believe that everyone will be resurrected.

6. The people who believe that Christianity is weak and foolish:

- (a) are called prophets.
- (b) do not believe that everyone will be resurrected.
- (c) are usually very humble people.

7. People who study the bible and prove all things, also understand that their knowledge comes from:

- (a) God.
- (b) their education.
- (c) the higher critics.

Indicate whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE:

The higher education we have today is necessary to help us understand:

- (a) the deeper truths of the Bible.
- (b) the errors in the Bible.
- (c) prophecies of Daniel.