God doth hate "a false witness that speaketh lies". (Proverbs 6:16-19)

We may get attention, and feel important, by telling something about another person which is not exactly true. Perhaps it is only a bit of an exaggeration, not an outright lie. Actually, if it is not wholly the truth, it is a lie! The little bit of notice we receive by telling some gossip, or reporting something in a slanted way, is in no way worth the hours of guilty feelings we have, and the knowledge that what we said was wrong.

Exodus 20:16

Read each statement and decide whether it is a true statement or not.

If it is true, color it green.

If it is false, color it brown.
