

March 18

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

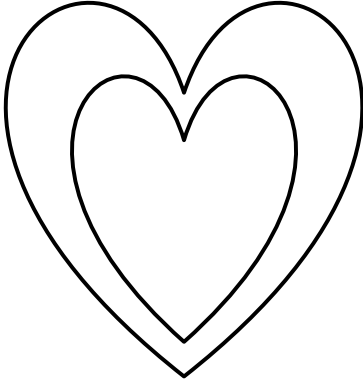

(1 John 4:20)

It is easy to say we love those we seldom or never see. The more difficult thing is to act out our love in caring, considerate acts for people we are with constantly. Love is not a feeling. Love is doing. The reality of love is in our behavior, not in our words. Part of loving God is loving those whom He loves. 1 John 4:21

Color the picture

Draw a line from the word to the heart that describes love as recorded in 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 ERV.

Patient		Sinner
Kind		Blames
Jealous		Rejoices
Doesn't Brag		Protects
Proud		Trusts
Praises		Angry
Conceited		Hopes
Kind		Fearful

Reread the text and comments.

Color the pictures that are love centered.

Color an X through pictures that do not show caring love.

Draw a picture or write an example of showing caring love.

