My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. (Proverbs 23:26)

The heart is the center and symbol of love. The eyes are called the windows of the mind. After we give our hearts and affections to God, the enlightening of the Holy Spirit through the study of the Bible enables us to see, or understand, his directions for making our lives over in ways more Christlike and pleasing to him. Jeremiah 24:7
