I will go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.
(Esther 4:16)

Queen Esther was very brave, for she risked her life by approaching the king without having been asked to do so. But the king indicated to Esther that she was free to state her request. She pleaded for her people, Israel, who were all to be executed on a certain date. Her story is a lesson of faithfulness in dangerous circumstances, as well as to watch for opportunities while we pray. Then we must leave the outcome with the LORD. Proverbs 29:25
