*Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
(John 11:11-14)*

Jesus was telling His friends that death is somewhat like sleeping. Just as we expect to awaken the next morning when we go to sleep at night, so we expect to awaken from the sleep of death in the morning of the Millennial Age. In due time all will awake from the sleep of death because Jesus gave His life as a corresponding price for the life Adam lost through disobedience. Daniel 12:2
