

August 6

Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess. (Ephesians 5:18)

Some drink alcohol so they can temporarily forget their problems. Instead of solving difficulties, drinking alcohol makes many of them worse and causes other problems. As Christians, let us bring every power and talent of mind and body into full submission to the will of God, rejecting the excessive use of alcohol as a detriment to developing our characters. Proverbs 20:1

Color the picture

Use the word bank to fill in the blanks for each statement

accidents

addiction

brain

choices

future

health

judgement

laws

liver

relationships

1. Drinking alcohol can impair a person's _____, making it harder to think clearly or make wise decisions.
2. Alcohol use can increase the risk of serious _____, including car crashes and injuries.
3. Repeated drinking over time can lead to _____, which makes it very difficult to stop.
4. Alcohol can harm the _____, especially since it is still developing in teenagers.
5. The _____ is an organ that can be damaged by excessive alcohol use.
6. Drinking can negatively affect a person's physical and mental _____.
7. Alcohol use often leads to poor _____ that a person may later regret.
8. Drinking can hurt _____ with family, friends, and others.
9. Underage drinking can break _____ and lead to serious consequences.
10. The choices a person makes about drinking can impact their _____ for years to come.

Use the companion scriptures of Colossians 3:2 to match the verse to the citation.

Col 3:2 "Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth."

Matthew 6:19–21

Romans 12:2

Philippians 4:8

2 Corinthians 4:18

Psalms 119:37

Proverbs 4:23

Galatians 5:16

Hebrews 12:1–2

James 4:4

1 John 2:15–17

Citation	Verse Summary
	"Don't store up treasures on Earth, but in Heaven."
	"Be transformed by renewing your mind."
	"Set your thoughts on what is true, pure, and worthy."
	"Focus on what is unseen and eternal, not temporary."
	"Turn my eyes away from worthless things."
	"Guard your heart because it guides your life."
	"Walk by the Spirit instead of following sinful desires."
	"Fix your eyes on Jesus, not the distractions around you."
	"Friendship with the world pulls you away from God."
	"Don't love the world or what it offers—it won't last."