As for me and my house, we will serve the LORD (Joshua 24:15)

Joshua had been reminding the Jewish people of many good things God had done for them in the past, and of his decision that he and his family would serve the true God. We cannot force others to serve God, but parents can take the opportunity to set an example and to teach their children about their faith in God and His promises while the children are still young and living in their parents' home. 1 Samuel 12:24

Choose today whom
You will Serve

But as for me and
My House We Will Serve the Lord.

Joshua 24:15

Read Joshua 24:15 CEV carefully and answer the questions.

“But if you don’t want to worship the LORD, then choose right now! Will you worship the same idols your ancestors did? Or since you’re living on land that once belonged to the Amorites, maybe you’ll worship their gods. I won’t. My family and I are going to worship and obey the LORD!”

1. What choice did Joshua tell the people to make?
2. When were they supposed to choose?
3. What two groups of false gods did Joshua mention?
4. What choice did Joshua make for himself?
5. Who did Joshua say would join him in serving the Lord?
6. Why do you think Joshua made his decision so firmly?

Bonus: Circle the most important word in the phrase and explain your choice.

“Choose you this day whom ye will serve.”

Beginning in the inside of the spiral with the letter 'A', cross out every other letter or the letters, 'f, j, p, q' until you have the scripture from Romans 12:11 ERV. Write the words below.
