Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost [Spirit] returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness. Luke 4:1

The word 'ghost' in the text is from the Greek word pneuma. A better translation would be 'spirit' or 'vital principle'. Jesus was filled with God's Holy Spirit at Jordan. He went into the mountains, away from every distraction, for forty days, to study, to pray, and to meditate on God's Word.

Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;
