I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. John 11:25

Since Adam's transgression and sentence, God considers the human race as dead, or dying. What human being ever lived who did not eventually die? And yet, through faith in Jesus' ransom sacrifice, we have the opportunity for everlasting life. So, although we are considered dead, we can all have life through Christ. John 6:40

Passage	Scripture Citation
For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
Jesus Christ defeated death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.
For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
So then as through one transgression there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one act of righteousness there resulted justification of life to all men.
I am the resurrection, and the life.
Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.
