Blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. Matthew 13:16

Jesus' disciples were very fortunate because they could understand, see, and hear what He was teaching. Some people heard His words but did not understand what He meant. Jesus knew those who understood received a blessing, and so He said His followers' eyes and ears were blessed. Luke 10:24

The mirror image of John 10:27 NAS95 is written below. Without looking up the scripture, analyze each letter and write the scripture so you can easily read it.

My sheep hear My voice, and

I know them, and they follow Me:

Fill in the ears and eyes of the blank head outline to show how important it is to listen and watch.
