October 19

Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect.
Matthew 5:48

According to Strong's Concordance, the word perfect means 'complete'. 'Therefore' refers back to the preceding verses, which tell us in what way we can be complete. Just as God gives blessings to the wicked as well as to the good, we are to love our enemies as well as our friends. James 1:4

Color the picture

Find the synonyms for the word ‘perfect’ in the Word Search.

absolute	complete	crowning	excellent faultless	finished	flawless	perfect pure	spotless	thorough	unblemished whole

g k m d e z h e w p l y j x t q u r y u k v y z r y a t h w f a l s e v y p p v p k l x p j m r f g k v d u s m i f f x u p e f o t x y b c a a h r o x h b f g r s p c i c w d w k a t m f t n i c a h e p n b d n o u n b l e m i s h e d u o e o o p o e i m i e t s b w h o l e l f x t g z n x i s p x g h z j n p y i t l c l c q a g u h h l r c o p a i n b l a e e w q a x i g p e e a d r d d w l e w l s t d q l p i l q d t q e o t d q s l l s m q l x m l t s q a e i y u v w s e e j e a b s o l u t e m g i k m g y b s n c r o w n i n g v r z z l i r d h l s t x n n p e r f e c t q x e x b a p f o

Cut out each square and organize the squares to be James 1:4 ERV.

that god	You will	result will
If you	in you,	wants you patience work	to be.	and complete.
the end	be mature	be good.

You will	be all	let that