October 20

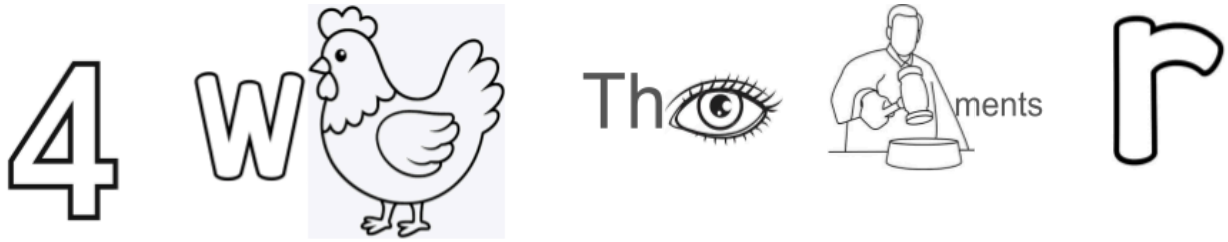

He laid hold on ... Satan, and bound him a thousand years. Revelation 20:2

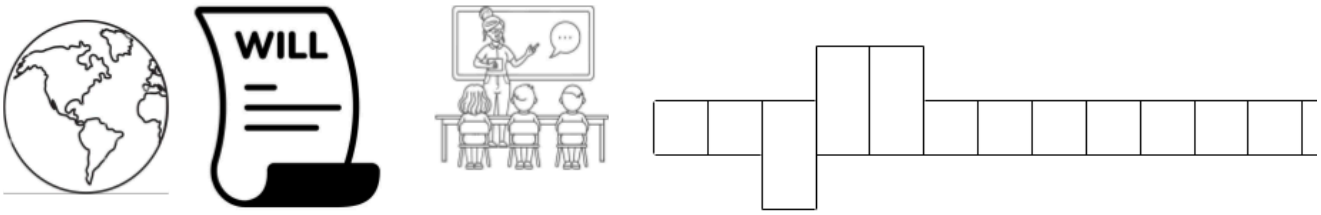

The object of the Millennial Age is to give all mankind a full, fair opportunity to learn of God's plans and purposes. With Satan bound and powerless, deceptions, superstitions, and ignorance will disappear. At the end of the thousand years he will be loosed for a time, allowing him to bring a final test of heart-loyalty to God upon mankind. Revelation 12:9

Color the picture

Decode the pictures and words to read Isaiah 26:9 KJV.

Read each situation.
Circle whether you think it is fair or not fair and then explain your reasoning.

1. Four friends each want to use the basketball. They agree to take turns shooting for five minutes each.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

2. One student does most of the research and makes the slides. The other students receive the same grade without helping.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

3. A student arrives late to the lunch line but asks a friend to save a place near the front.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

4. Two siblings divide the chores. One washes the dishes while the other takes out the trash and sweeps the kitchen.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

5. A captain picks only close friends for a team, even though other students have been waiting and are ready to play.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

6. A group has ten markers to share. One student takes six before anyone else can choose.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

7. A student is given a chance to make up an assignment after being absent because of illness. The class has the same make-up option when someone is absent.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____

8. During a game, a referee makes a call against one team without checking what happened, even though several players ask for an explanation.
   Fair / Not fair
   Why? _____