October 21

Behold, I create new Heavens and a new Earth. Isaiah 65:17

In the kingdom, Christ and the glorified Church will be the new Heavens, or spiritual control, over the Earth. Earth's society will be reorganized under this government on the basis of love and justice, instead of selfishness and oppression. 2 Peter 3:13

Color the picture

Complete the worksheet October 21

Follow the directions for each section using Isaiah 65:17 KJV.

1. Fill in the blanks

“For, behold, I create new _____ and a new _____. The _____ shall not be remembered, nor come into _____.”

2. What does the verse mean?

Circle the best answer.

a. God promises to make the world new and remove the sorrowful things of the past.
b. God wants people to forget everything they have learned.
c. God will only change the sky, not the people or the earth.

3. Word Study

1. What does ‘create’ mean?

2. What does ‘new heavens and a new earth’ mean?

3. What ‘former things’ is the verse referring to?

4. Think About It

What problems or painful experiences do you think will no longer be part of God's new creation?

How can this promise help someone stay hopeful when life is hard?

Using the words; love, justice, selfishness, and oppression, find the synonyms for each.
The synonyms for the word love, color green.
The synonyms for the word justice, color blue.
The synonyms for the word selfishness, color orange.
The synonyms for the word oppression color yellow.

gluttony	stinginess	love	law
suffering	affection	persecution	cruelty
appreciation	greed	right	selfishness
due process	devotion	justice	oppression