October 31

Unto you that fear (reverence) my name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings (beams). Malachi 4:2

Those who truly reverence Jesus, the Sun of Righteousness, will be able to appreciate the beginning, or dawning, of the day when the Messiah will heal, console, forgive, and instruct all the families of the Earth, putting an end to sin, pain, sorrow, and death.
1 Peter 1:19

Color the picture

Look up each passage to find the answers.

1. Compare Micah 4:2 with Isaiah 2:2–3. What do people want God to teach them?

2. In Psalm 25:4–5, what two things does David ask God to do for him?

3. What picture does Psalm 119:105 use to explain how God’s word helps us?

4. According to Jeremiah 31:33–34, where does God promise to put His law?

5. In Zechariah 8:20–23, what do people from many nations decide to do?

6. Why is “beginning at Jerusalem” important in Luke 24:46–47?

7. What hope of refreshing or restoration do you find in Acts 3:19–21?

8. Micah says, “we will walk in his paths.” Name one way a person can show they are learning God’s way.

Below is the scripture from Isaiah 2:3 NAS95. Cut each square and rearrange them in order as the scripture is written.

And many peoples will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; That He may teach us concerning His ways And that we may walk in His paths." For the law will go forth from Zion And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

concerning His	and many	in His	of the	may walk forth from	He may	the house	Zion and	“Come, let the mountain	the word	peoples	teach us	of the God of	that we	LORD, to	will go	ways and will come	the law	of the	and say,	up to paths.” for	us go	Jerusalem.	Jacob; that	LORD from