

October 7

Take heed that ye do not your [alms acts of righteousness] before men, to be seen of them Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. (Matthew 6:1,2)

If we do good deeds in order to bring praise and glory to ourselves, then they are not being done to please God. The praise we get from others is all the reward we will get for them: God will not reward us further. Matthew 6:4

Color the picture

Answer the following questions based on Matthew 6:1-8

1. Why did Jesus warn against doing good deeds just to be noticed by others?
2. What is the difference between helping someone sincerely and helping someone to receive praise?
3. What reward did the hypocrites receive for announcing their good deeds?
4. What does it mean to give without “letting your left hand know what your right hand is doing”?
5. How does God respond to acts of kindness that are done quietly and sincerely?
6. Why did Jesus criticize people who prayed mainly where others could see them?
7. What does praying in private teach us about our relationship with God?
8. What did Jesus mean when he warned against using meaningless repetition in prayer?
9. How should knowing that God understands our needs affect the way we pray?
10. What is one way you can apply Jesus’ teachings about giving or prayer this week?

Write the missing vowels to the words in the scripture Colossians 3:23-24 ERV.

___n ___ll th___ w___rk y___ ___r___ g___v___n, d___ th___ b___st y___ ___c___n.

w___rk ___s th___ ___gh y___ ___r___

w___rk___ng f___r th___ L___rd, n___t ___ny ___ ___rthly m___st___r.

R___m___mb___r th___t y___ ___w___ll

r___c___ ___v___ y___ ___r ___w___rd fr___m

th___ L___rd, wh___ w___ll g___v___ y___ ___ wh___t h___ pr___m___s___d h___s p___ ___pl___.

Y___s, y___ ___r___ s___rv___ng Chr___st.

H___ ___s y___ ___r ___l M___st___r.