

October 8

It shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. Isaiah 65:24

God remembers all His people who come to Him with humble and repentant hearts. He is merely waiting for us to call out to Him for help in our times of difficulty and need, with willing hearts to accept His provisions for us, knowing they are in our best interest. Matthew 6:8

Color the picture

Use the following synonyms for 'repent' to complete the Sudoku.

Change

change of heart

confess repent

return to God

turn

|                 |               |                 |               |                 |                 |
|-----------------|---------------|-----------------|---------------|-----------------|-----------------|
|                 |               |                 | Return to God |                 |                 |
| turn            | Return to God |                 |               | change          | Change of heart |
| repent          | confess       | Change of heart |               |                 |                 |
|                 |               |                 |               | Change of heart | repent          |
| confess         | change        |                 |               | repent          | turn            |
| Change of heart | repent        | turn            | change        |                 | Return to God   |

Complete the following.

Questions

1. If God already knows what we need, why should we still pray?
2. What is the difference between a need and a want?
3. Does God always answer prayers in exactly the way we expect? Why might His answer be different?
4. How can prayer help us trust God when we feel worried?

Prayer Outline

Draw a large circle and divide it into four sections. Label the sections:

- Praise: Something wonderful about God
- Thanks: Something God has provided
- Need: Something you need God's help with
- Others: Someone else who needs help

Write one short prayer thought in each section. Then use the four thoughts to form a simple prayer.