

April 20

*Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
(John 15:13)*

Jesus' friends were all the human race. Jesus agreed with God to lay aside all that he had in heaven, and to have his life-principle transferred to the baby born in Bethlehem. He consented to become a human being and to willingly give up that perfect human life to pay the price for the life Adam lost through disobedience in the Garden of Eden.

Ephesians 5:2

Color the picture

Birth of Jesus

—Matthew 1; Luke 2

Stable Mates

A stable? It was a strange birthplace for a king! But the Bible tells us that is where Mary and Joseph spent the night when Jesus was born. Scripture also tells us that shepherds came. Now think about that night. Who else could have been there?

Unscramble each set of letters in the stable and write your answer on its line.

