Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man. (Luke 2:52)

After the manner of Jewish boys, Jesus attended the synagogue and heard the Scriptures read every Sabbath. When he was twelve years old, the teachers of the Law were astonished at his understanding and answers. He had a perfect memory and active mind, for he was unblemished by sin, and he spent his time studying and learning all he could about his Heavenly Father's plans and purposes. 1 Samuel 2:26
